With its recent successes on the Belgian market, Engineering International Belgium (EIB), the Belgian subsidiary of the Gruppo Engineering, needs to heavily strengthen its local workforce.

Engineering International Belgium can provide you with the ideal environment to enrich your professional career in an international context.

We are actively searching for 30 IT professionals! All entrepreneurial minded, self-directed and with a strong team spirit and determined willingness to deliver top quality services to our international customers.

We search technical specialists that could match the following profile:

- University Degree (ideally in Computer Science)
- Strong level of spoken/written English (French is an asset)
- More than 6 years of expertise

The professional roles assumed could be:

Software Architect:

- Architecture and design of new information systems.
- Review of the architecture of existing systems
- Design of component architecture and building blocks
- Analysis of the integration of different information systems
- Follow up of the data analysis and data modeling.
- Coordination of the implementation of the technical architecture
- Technical interface between the project leaders and the analysts.
- Production of software architecture documents
- Participation in technical working groups, progress meetings and meetings with the users
- Assistance in the testing, the technical documentation, the deployment, the evaluation and the reporting
- Expertise in UML, SOA, J2EE and Relational DB required

Analysts:

- Analysis of user requirements and modelling of new information systems.
- Production of use case models, design and analysis models, implementation models
- Data analysis, data modelling.
- Follow up of the developments.
- Technical Interface between the project leader, the application architects and the developers.
- Participation in technical working groups, progress meetings and meetings with the users
- Assistance in the testing, the technical documentation, the technical training, the deployment, the evaluation and the reporting
- Expertise in UML, J2EE, Web 2.0 and Relational DB required

Senior Application Programmer:

- Analysis of the requirements.
- Prototyping
- Writing/maintenance of applications that reflect the specifications
- Elaboration of test programs
- Definition and integration of technological components
- Integration with other applications
- Production of technical documentation
- Assistance with training the administrators and users of the system.
- Assistance with deployment and configuration of the system
- Assist with evaluating and testing products delivered by other teams to ensure that they conform to the Commission requirements and methodology.
- Participation in meetings with the Commission.
- Minimum 3 years in modeling tools (e.g. UML), RDBMS (e.g. Oracle), or development tools/ environments/languages (e.g. Java, J2EE, ColdFusion, pl/sql)

The technical competences could among those:

- Java related technologies including:
  - Java, J2EE
  - JSP, JDBC, JMS
  - SOAP
  - Knowing one of the following framework: Hibernate, Struts, Spring
  - Knowledge of Design Patterns is a plus
  - As related products, we could cite BEA Weblogic, Eclipse, Oracle JDeveloper, JBoss
- ColdFusion related technologies including:
  - HTML/ XML, CSS
  - CFML, Flex
  - PDF
- SQL/PLSQL
  - Data base modeling and building
  - Multi-tiers applications with the logic mainly deployed in the DBMS (PL/SQL packages)
  - Knowledge of query optimization techniques is a plus
  - As related products, we could cite Oracle RDBMS(Mostly), Postgresql, MySQL, SQL Server
- Business Objects
  - Good knowledge in SQL and tuning, Oracle PL/SQL.
  - Good knowledge in Business Objects Designer, Business Objects Reporter. Business Objects XI, Designer Web Intelligence Rich Client.
  - Good knowledge in Business Objects Data Integrator (BODI).

We are eager to read from you!
Send your cv to: jobs.roma@eng.it
Ref. SA/BX