ENGINEERING AND INTESA SANPAOLO: AGREEMENT FOR THE SALE OF INFOGROUP

Milan/Rome, 27 July 2017 - Engineering and Intesa Sanpaolo have signed an agreement for the sale of 100% of the share capital of Infogroup held by the banking group.

The agreement includes, among other things, the establishment of a commercial agreement between Infogroup and the Intesa San Paolo Group, and maintaining employment levels.

The transaction is expected to be completed by the end of the year and is only subject to the usual authorisations from the competent authorities.

Infogroup, which has overall revenues of around 70 million Euro, has locations in Florence and Moncalieri. The company's core business - equal to around 70% of production value - consists of IT services for the financial industry, which make up the majority of revenues, petrol, mass retail, ICT and Public Administration. Infogroup serves companies within the ISP Group by providing transaction banking services, corporate customer assistance, competence centre, management services and solutions, bankassurance, compliance and document management.

The non-captive revenues, which cover the remaining 30% of production value is distributed mainly among services for banks and insurance companies, loyalty/e-commerce and financial type information services.

Intesa Sanpaolo was assisted in the transaction by EY and by the law firm Pedersoli Studio Legale.
